Shaman Michael Smith

Shaman Michael Smith became part of the DNR family over 10 years ago and has used the Liquid Needles formula in his practice to help many of his clients achieve great results over the years.

Recently, Michael introduced DNR to a revolutionary circulation technology that only takes 8 soothing minutes to enjoy and it's a perfect marriage to enhance results of Liquid Needles for people of all ages including the animals, and the device is FDA registered.

This German technology is called BEMER (Bio.Electro.Magnetic.Energy.Regulation) and was developed over 17 years ago and currently has 5 international patents. BEMER is a home or office medical modality and they're working with over 4,000 reference physicians, hospitals, clinicians, universities, health practitioners, spa owners and gyms in 42 Countries with over 1 million satisfied users.

In March 2015, BEMER officially contracted with NASA to use this technology in the space program to enhance circulation for astronauts during space missions.

Olympian champions, top sports athletes and people with all types of challenging health conditions use the BEMER every day to achieve:

- General enhanced blood flow
- Enhanced nutrient supply and waste disposal
- Enhanced cardiac functions
- Enhanced physical fitness, endurance, strength and energy levels
- Enhanced concentration, mental acuity, stress reduction and relaxation
- Enhanced prevention
- Enhanced quality of life
